Day to Day Itinerary

Hello!

I'm Father Patrick O'Neal, a priest of the Diocese of Peoria, and a native Quebecer. I invite you to join me in visiting the shrines of the saints of Canada, enjoying the unique culture of Quebec, and taking in the great natural beauty of the St. Lawrence River Valley.

During our pilgrimage, Mass will be offered each day, explanation of each site we visit will be given, and memories will be made. Please consider joining me in visiting the land of my birth.

God Bless!

The Saints of Canada

Saint Marguerite Bourgeoys

Marguerite founded the Congregation of Notre Dame of Montreal in 1658. She is also Canada's first female Saint! Her tomb is located inside the historic Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours Chapel in the heart of Old Montreal.

Saint Marguerite d'Youville

The first native-born Canadian Saint, Marguerite was one of three nuns to found the Order of Sisters of Charity of Montreal. She is often called the Mother of Universal Charity in recognition of her many good works for the people of Montreal. Her shrine is in her hometown of Varennes, just across the river from Montreal.

Saint André Bessette

More commonly known also as Brother André, he is credited with the miraculous healing of thousands of sick and injured faithful through his devotion to St. Joseph. André is credited with the founding of St. Joseph's Oratory, a beautiful basilica that welcomes over 2 million visitors each year!

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

Recognized as the first native American Saint, Kateri converted to Catholicism when she was 19. Though she died of illness at only 24, she became known for her steadfast devotion to the faith despite the misgivings of her fellow natives. Our group will visit her shrine just south of Montreal, located along the St. Lawrence River.

Saint Marie de l'Incarnation

Marie founded the first Ursuline Monastery in Quebec, now a National Historic Site of Canada, in 1642. Her tireless efforts to spread Catholicism in the New World were eventually rewarded with her canonization by Pope Francis in 2014. Her tomb can be found within the Ursuline Monastery she helped found in Quebec City.

Saint François de Laval

François de Laval was Quebec's first Bishop and he worked throughout his life to strengthen the faith in the New World despite numerous clashes with the region's governing authorities. He also founded a Seminary which eventually grew into the famous Laval University. His tomb is in the famous Cathedral-Basilica of Notre-Dame de Québec, the oldest church in Canada.

Canadian Martyrs

Also known as the North American Martyrs, these men gave their lives in service to God as they worked to spread the faith among the Native peoples of the New World. They are honored with a shrine in Midland, Ontario.
