Full day visits to the Topkapi Palace; overlooking the Sea of Marmara and containing numerous chambers, courtyards, and royal treasures; the Sultan Ahmed (Blue) Mosque, with its six minarets and thousands of blue tiles; and the Basilica of St. Sofia (Church of the Sacred Wisdom), now a museum, converted to a mosque from a Christian Basilica after the fall of Constantinople in 1453. We will read today from the Acts 17:1-9 and "Letter to the Thessalonians". This time will become more alive to us as our visit will include the Galerius Arch, built a little before 305 A.D. in commemoration of Galerius's victory over the Persians in 297. Next is the most beautiful basilica in the city St. Demetrius where Saint Paul was imprisoned, tortured, and buried. We then visit Veria, one of Paul's stops, where a Byzantine mosaic commemorates his preaching. We check into our hotel for dinner and overnight.

The word Meteora means literally 'hovering in the air' as all the monasteries were built on top of the high rocks. Monks have been recorded living in these caves since the 11th century. The Church of the Transfiguration is the best known of the Monasteries and is built upon the highest rock, founded by Athanasios the Meteorite, a well-known figure in Orthodox monasticism. We continue to Athens for dinner and overnight.
